MORE THAN ONE TREATY.

Extraneous Matters to Be Left to Fu-

Washington, Dec. 5.—The impression wannington, Dec. 5.—The impression prevails here that the results of the negotiations at Paris will be embodied in two or move treaties, instead of one. There will be one actual peace treaty, embodying nothing more than the protect points relating to the relinquist-ments of Spanish sovereignty over Cuba and the Spanish West Indies, Guam and the Philipping, with the beingle exception of the proviso for the relinquist of the renewal of the commercial treaty, the acquisition of cable and couling stations, and, in fact, all those extrateous matters that have been moulfoned as likely to be incorporated in the peace treaty, will form the subject of a special treaty. This course is likely to be adopted in order to hasten the conclusion of peace, of which there is a great necessity. If for no other reason than to secure the release of prisoners and the restoration of trade between Spain and the United States. revails here that the results of the ne the United States circuit court for the second time on the charges growing out of the looting of the First National bank of Dover, by its teller, William R. Bogss. Kenney was last arraigned on the charge of alding and abetting Boggs in misapplying the bank's funds in last July, and after a trial lasting over one week the jury disagreed. Since then the charge of conspiracy has been joined to the first charge. The discovery of a shortage in the bank came in May, 1895, when Teller Boggs suddenly left Dover. The bank was found to have been looted in the sum of $100,000. President Richardson of the bank came to the rescue and saved the institution from failure. Boggs subsequently gave himself up and admitted his defaleation, at the same time making statements which led to the arest of Senator Kenney and several other citizens of Dover. Two of the latter have been convicted and are now serving terms in the Trenton penitentiary. Boggs pleaded guilty and is awaiting sentence.

The evidence against Senator Kenney deals largely with numerous stock fransactions in which he and Boggs were interested.

During his last trial Senator Kenney was represented by Senator Gray, his largely with numerous stock fransactions in which he and Boggs were interested.

During his last trial Senator Kenney was represented by Senator Gray, his colleague in the senate, and Levi C. Bird. Senator Gray is now in Parls with the peace commission, and exactioney John Biggs is assisting Mr. Bird.

Court did not open until nearly noon
and then took a recess until 2:30 p, m, when the examination of witnesses began before a courtroom that was crowded to the doors.

In his opening address to the jury,
District Attorney Vandegrift said he would be able to prove that Senator Kenney drew money from the bank to which he was not entitled, and used it to tide over difficulties brought upon him by stock speculations. He said that by an arangement with Eoggs, Senator Kenney drew money from the bank when he had no funds there, Boggs making the defendant's account balance by the use of other money in the bank, or in some instances, by withholding the senator's checks until he had made good the deficit.

the bank, or in some instances, by withholding the senator's checks until he had made good the deficit.

H. A. Richardson, president of the bank, testified to Boggs' connection with the institution, and said that it came to the attention of the directors in August, 1895, that Boggs had been gambling. He concessed his fault and was forgiven. Witness had no further reason to suspect Boggs until after his flight in May, 1896. Mr. Richardson said the definication was $197,090, and that the bank was able to continue by himself and others guaranteeing the stockholders from any loss and reducing the capital stock from $100,000 to $20,000.

A cause of delay and argument at the former trial was avoided today by the admission of numerous checks drawn by Sepator Kenney to the order of a number of persons and paid by the Efrat National bank. These covered the period from May to September, 1896, and aggregated nearly $1,001. Of this amount $6.508 represented the stock dealings with E. B. Cuthbert & Co. of Philadelphia. It was admitted that Senator Kenney sined checks for $4.200 of the amount represented in stock transactions for Boggs' benefit. The remainder represented his own dealings.

Numerous telegrams between Senator Kenney and Cuthbert & Co. were also admitted. These represented his own dealings in regard to the stock, but none of the telegrams were read to the jury.

Court then adjourned until temorrow.
